Several members of the Class of 1943 will not file onto the stage to receive their diplomas this year. They have left Chehalis High to take their place in the armed forces of our country. What they are doing, the ideals for which they are fighting—that is the emblem of the graduating class of 1943.

This year, eighty-seven students will leave Chehalis High. A small, but outstanding group, they have exemplified by their spendid achievements the spirit of our school.

Frank Junkin guided the Class of 1943 through its sophomore and junior years, while Tom Venard led the group through its senior year.

This has been a year, where war has attempted to destroy the meaning of education—but the Seniors have accepted that challenge—they have taken a new initiative in their work. They have pursued their studies with a new seriousness and effort, for they are preparing themselves to serve their country in its time of need.

That effort—that desire to prepare for the future—is the living spirit of the Class of 1943.

IRVING HANDLIN

VALEDICTORIAN

Irving Handlin, with a record of straight A's, or a grade point average of 4.0, ranked first in the Class of '43. Irving has had a marvelous record throughout his twelve years of schooling and we hope it continues. He has been active in Debate and Journalism in his four years of High School and this year he was Editor of the Crimson & Gray.

SALUTATORIAN

Bob Quick, a close second to Irving with a grade point average of 3.85 supplemented his scholarly endeavor with several activities. His capabilities as an athlete have brought him several awards and he has been active the last three years in the journalistic field. This year he distinguished himself as Student Body President.
